

CAROLINA CAVALIER

Central Carolina Cavalier
King Charles Spaniel Club

Volume 2, Issue 6

June 2006

Presidents Message.

The 2006-2007 is going to be an exciting year with lots to do. The Club has planned a Specialty Match (A-OA) for August and is looking toward the possibility of a full fledged Specialty Match, with points, for the fall of 2007.

The club will continue to provide networking services for all owners of Cavaliers via both our bi-monthly meetings and the web site, www.carolinacavaliers.com, providing a forum for questions involving behavior, health, breeding, showing, handling, training, breeder referral, and breed improvement.

This year the club will offer an open 30 minute practice handling session before each meeting. This is for the beginner who has an interest in learning to present their dogs and the experienced handler who is looking for pointers. This is a great opportunity for youngsters to get involved in the sport and for experienced handlers to share and gain knowledge for both the show ring and the obedience and sport events.

I hope to see you all there.

May Meeting of the club.

Up Coming Events

CCCKCSC A-OA Match

Saturday, August 19, 2006

11:00 AM to 6 PM

Durham Kennel Club

7318 Guess Rd.

Judging starts at 12 Noon

Big Brags!!!

From Dee Wallis

My brag is that Roi L C'est la Vie, Celia, won third place in the large open Blenheim class in the National and second place in that same class in the Atlanta regional specialty three days later.

From Dave Wagner

CastleMyst Princess Katherine is now CastleMyst Princess Katherine CD. She finished her obedience title at the Carolina dog training club competition in Greensboro in March with two high score, first place finishes.

From Sunny Johnson Lewis and Cali.

At the nationals in Pine Mt Ga. Rokirk's Beautiful Dreamer "Cali" had a great week. Shown by Gwen Wells, Cali took a fourth place in sweepstakes on the first day under judge Robert Schroll. On Thursday, under UK judge Mrs., Norma Inglis, Cali and Gwen made the cut out of a class of 23. On Sunday at the CKCSC of Greater Atlanta Specialty show under breeder judge Mr. Rick Beauchamp, Cali won her 12-18 bitch class.

From Eileen Haac Wilson

CH Gray Stone Tinker Toy UD placed (4th) in the Veteran conformation class at the National in Calloway, GA...My sweet Tinker is now officially retired...maybe!

From Dana Pritchett

Front and Finish Novice A Ratings for 2005 Cavalier King Charles Spaniels #2 Redthea A Magic MomentCD.

Toy Group #8 Cavalier King Charles Spaniel

From Cathy Eason

I showed Cosmo in the Open Tri-Color class at the National Specialty on May 3, and he took 2nd place. The dog that took first in Open Tri ended up being Winners Dog, so we got to go in with many, many handsome boys for Reserve. Of course Cosmo didn't take Reserve, but I was just ecstatic to be able to be in the same ring with those handlers and dogs!! that's it for us...I certainly wish I had more to brag about....(Like some POINTS!!!)

From Lynda Fairchild, Lynsfaire Cavaliers

I finally have a brag - I finished Brookhaven Bear With Me At Lynsfaire (Brady) with a 3 point major (he only needed 1 point) at the Chesapeake, Virginia AKC show on Sunday, April 30th. He also went Best of Winners. Have been chasing that 1 point since he took a major at the Baltimore show in November

From Lynn Lake

Mr. Scottie got both his CGC and passed his Delta Pet Partner's test to become a therapy dog!!!! I am so proud of my crazy guy!!!

From Gwen & Ron Well; National Brags

We certainly had a busy but rewarding trip to nationals this year. I am always happy with any placement at such a prestigious event so you can see by the following placements we were honored to have our dogs get so much recognition.

On Tues. 5/2 In Sweepstakes Competition and judge Robert Schroll we took the following placements: Twickenham's Charmin Red Rogue, dog (Owned by Mimi Hodges) took a 2nd place.

Wellington's Scarborough Fair took 2nd place in a class of 28 6-9 bitches.

Wednesday for dog judging, from the American Breed Class, Twickenham's Charmin Red Rogue was the class winner.

Saturday started the CKCSC Club of Greater Atlanta and we started the day with Sweepstakes.

The judge for Sweepstakes awarded my two naughty puppy girls a 2nd and 3rd in the 6-9 puppy bitch class. 2nd was again Wellington's Scarborough Fair and her sister, Wellington's Vanity Fair, was 3rd.

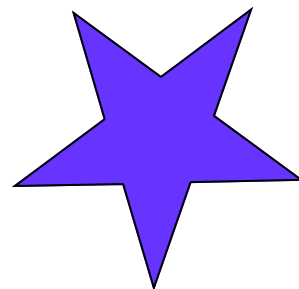

Once Sweepstakes was completed we began dog judging with Rick Beauchamp as our judge. Twickenham's Charmin Red Rogue again was the class winner for the American Breed Class.

Come to the Show!

Judging resumed on Sunday morning with the puppy bitch classes under Judge Beauchamp.

From the 12-18 class, I won the class with Sunny Johnson Lewis's girl, Rokirk Beautiful Dreamer.

In the Breed By Exhibitor class of 12 bitches, I also won that class with my 8 month old puppy bitch, Wellington's Vanity Fair.

To win two bitch classes at a specialty show was a thrill that could only be topped if one of them had gone on to win the points.

To top off a wonderful week, I was given the honor of showing a special for my dear friend Janet Turner Dalton. Her lovely dog Harry, Ch Wildflower's Hawthorne, showed like a dream for me and we made the first cut of the day in Best Of Breed competition. Thank you Janet for allowing me to show Harry at such a prestigious show.

Central Carolina Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club, Inc. will hold an AKC sanctioned Specialty Match and Specialty Obedience match under the AKC Plan A-OA.

The match will be held Saturday August 19, 2006 at the Durham Kennel Club facility, 7318 Guess Rd. Judging will be indoors and will start at 12:00 Noon. Doors will open at 11:00AM for exhibitor set up.

Judge for Conformation and Jr. Showmanship will be Mrs. Karin Ostmann of Eagle Nebraska.

Judge for Obedience will be Mrs. Anne Standen of Pilot Mountain, NC.

New Members Announced

Allen and Barbara Kloss were voted in as members at the May meeting.

Don't forget to bring a dish to share for to the Meeting & Potluck July.

CCCKCSC Member Meeting May 13, 2006

The club member meeting began at 1:45pm at the facilities of You Lucky Dog in Raleigh, NC.

Minutes from the March meeting were read and accepted.

President Nelson reported the club has been published as a sanctioned club in the AKC Gazette Events bulletin.

Secretary reported he had received a request from the American Kennel Club to update our list of officers and directors after the election and to provide a current copy of the membership list. This will be done.

Treasurer's Report: Checking balance: $3,256.89, 1 deposit, 1 check written to the Durham Kennel Club for building rental.

Membership: Allen and Barbara Kloss were voted into membership. Renewals are due by June 1st. Renewal forms were passes out.

Newsletter: Amy requested that brags from the National be sent to her.

Match: Dana Pritchett reviewed progress on the match. A request to hold a match in August will be submitted to AKC next week.

Old Business: none

New Business: There was a discussion of selection of judges for future events. It was noted the Board would discuss the matter in more detail at the June Board of Directors meeting, which, as always, is open to all members.

As the nominating committee's slate for club officers and directors for the 2006-7 year remained unopposed, President Nelson declared the slate elected. The new officers are: President - Bill Nelson, V. Pres. - Lynn Lake, Sec./Treas. - Steve Wallis, Directors: Amy Martin, Jeff Curran, Joyce McHenry, Dee Wallis.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 2:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Steve Wallis - Secretary/Treasurer
