

Specialty Report from the Show Secretary

Plans for our Specialty Show on Friday September 12 are going well. The Premium List is in the hands of the exhibitors and we are hoping for a large turn out for our Show. While it is our second show, it is our first stand alone, so we are very excited and are hoping for great participation from our membership, as well as visitors from around the country. There will be some help needed patrolling the grounds, cleaning up afterwards, and "this >n= that" during the day. Short work slots are available for many small tasks; so if you plan to attend and are willing to do a service, please let Dana Pritchett know (E-mail: dpritchett2@nc.rr.com, or phone 919 618-3522).

This year club members, Janet and Ed Dalton, have opened their home and are hosting a dinner to be held one hour after the show. Maps to their home will be handed out at the show site. On Saturday during the Moore County Show we will have a "Conversation On Breed Type" led by Veronica Hull and John Gammon. It will be an informal gathering open to all in the judges tent after cavaliers show and the judges= lunch. I imagine it will be very educational for the experienced, as well as novice among us. We hope you will plan to attend both of these Special Attractions. There is no charge for either but we need a head count, so please respond to the Show Secretary: Barbara Kloss: barbaraloukloss@gmail.com, or (910)693-1895.

Our Club will also support the Cavalier entry at the Moore County shows on Saturday and Sunday. Look for the premium list for special trophies.

Update on the Silent Auction

Mary Pickett is hard at work gathering interesting goodies to present at the Silent Auction for our Specialty. These items will be on display at the show. The bidding on many of these items will be concluded at the end of judging. Some of the more special items, will be transported to the gathering at the Daltons= for additional bidding during the evening.
